The flag-bearer of the Progressive People's Party-PPP, Dr. Paa Kwesi Nduom has assured the good of Ghana that he is going to declare his assets in two weeks and challenges other presidential hopefuls to do the same, the CHDSCGhana community correspondent, Kojo Atta Abrowa of YES Fm, Cape Coast reports.

Dr Nduom's challenge relates to the 1992 constitution of the republic of Ghana that requires that assets are declared. President J.D. Mahama during his encounter with the IEA debate last Wednesday 18th Oct., confirmed the requirement as in the constitution.

Dr Nduom threw the challenge yesterday (19th Oct.) at Essaman Junction, a suburb of Elmina in the Komenda Edina Eguafo Abrem Municipal, KEEA. He made the statement during the formal introduction of his parliamentary candidate Ewuraba Mansa Manieson to the electorate of Essaman Junction. He therefore called on the local electorates to vote massively for him as President and Ms. Manieson as Parliamentarian.

Nana Ababio, chief of the area, also recommended him (Dr Nduom) to be voted for, since he has been helping with their needs. Nana said the community has been neglected for so long a time till when Dr. Nduom came to their aid by laying a foundation for a meeting place. Though not completed, Nana is of the view that the people need to think and vote for someone who has their interests and needs at heart. " Nana Ababio disclosed.

Dr Nduom promised the community 100 bags of cements to be used to support the building project.
